

SAHTÚ NĚ K'ÉDIKÉ

Keepers of the Land

Apply now for the pilot NĚ-K'édiké program, November-March, including four weeks on the land.

- ◆ Training in on the land leadership and research!
- ◆ Contribute to development of our long term regional and local NĚ K'édiké programs!
- ◆ Travel funding & stipend offered!

APPLICATION DEADLINE
NOVEMBER 12

Application forms are available at your local First Nation or ʔehdzo Got'jne (Renewable Resources Council office. For more info, contact Jennie Vandermeer, info@srrb.nt.ca, 867-587-3517.

SIX KEY THEMES

1. Healing, spirituality, and ceremony
2. Intergenerational learning
3. Understanding changes to the environment
4. Dene ʔetęne (traditional trails)
5. Dene béré (food security/sovereignty)
6. Dene kədə, Dene godı and Dene ʔeʔa (language, stories and laws).

WELLNESS

Founded in Dene ts'ıı (ways of being), spirituality, and ceremony. Healing and wellness are critical for development of our future leaders.

LEARNING

Supported by elders, communities, and leaders.

